Was there ever before such a truly genuine, magnanimous offer, based upon highest motives and nobiest efforts?

The people of Richmond say empiratically Not. They have declared it in more ways than one. They have demonstrated this hy tansible action. They have weitten for Munyon's "Guide to Health, studied its pages, hought his remedies therein prescribed; they have requested by mail and by measurer the presence of one of his experienced physicians at the bedside; they will besiege his office for free treatment and free prescriptions.

The great masses have shaker off the shackles that bound them to the false reasoning of practitioners doctrines, and have come to Munyon to learn the exact way of prescribing a positive cure for themselves, thus becoming their own physician. During the past three days Munyon's risiting physicians were called to 129 sick homes. There was not a penny asked or charged for this service.

This same offer of free visiting physicians, free treatment, and free prescriptions at the office are open to the public. The scores applying daily for free physician service and treatment have so criptical the progress of work that Professor Munyon requests the indulgence of any applicant if his visiting doctors are detained in calling upon them, every effort being used to make prompt calls.

gregations, from whose convention in Louisville Rabbi E. N. Callach has just returned, and which will hold its next convention in this city, is composed of about 150 of the leading Jewish congregations of this country. It is a purely de-Mberative body, and is not in the nature of a synod at all. Its conventions, which meet biennially, are made up of delegates chosen by the respective congregations, and in proportion to their mem-

The delegates meet to discuss various measures for the benefit and welfare of Judalsm in America, and to aid any worthy cause which may be within the scope of the union. The principal care of the union is to provide for the college, which is by no means amply provided for. Its running expenses last year were about $11,000 more than its income, and the sinking fund, which is not large, cannot stand this drain much longer. After a full and rengthy discussion in Louisville, covering various measures, it was resolved to make an effort to raise an endowment fund large enough to place the college above the necessity of any further

The union also maintains a board of delegates of civil and religious rights, of which Mr. Simon Wolf. of Washington, D. It also maintains a system of circuit preaching, reaching the smaller Jewish communities of the country towns, whose numties of the country towns, whose num-bers preclude the maintenance of a re-ligious teacher. The hospitalities extended by the peo-ple of Louisville were of a most delight-ful and generous character, and the delegates were much pleased.

The convention unanimously accepted the invitation extended by Congregation

The most prominent delegate to the Louisville convention was the Rev. Dr. T. M. Wise, of Cincinnati, the oldest Jewish minister in the country, and the founder of the Union of Hebrew Congregations. His name is held in reverence by the entire Lewish ministry, and is a by the entire Jewish ministry, and is a household word in every Jewish family. Dr. Wise was born in Steingrub Bohemia, in 1819. He was educated in the colleges at Prague, Vienna Lelpsic, and, after serving three Leipsio, and little services to America in 1842. Dr. Wise had been in the United States but a few years when he realized the importance of a Hebrew theological seminary in this country. At that time the Jewish ministers were all foreign-ers, and Dr. Wise conceived the idea of inaugurating a Hebrew theological course of study on this side of the Atlantic. For ten years he worked incessantly for and, finally, saw the successful cul tions, at which it was determined to jointly support a Hebrew theological seminary. Two years lated the edifice was reared in Cincinnati. Dr. Wise is the president of the faculty. Besides being prominent in the pulpit. Dr. Wise is also the edifor of two of the leading to the Control of the Hebrew papers in the United States-the American Israelite and the Deborroh. has also written several volumes on the history of the Jews; a volume or the theology of Judaism; three volumes on the doctrines of Christianity; a philoentitled, "The Cosmic
